The Honorable Margo K. Brodie
United States District Court
Eastern District of New York
225 Cadman Plaza East
Brooklyn, NY 11201

in re: United States v. Wilburn, no. 19-CR-108

Dear Chief Judge Brodie:

The defendant, Andre Wilburn, respectfully submits this letter to object to the "Ex parte Document" and letter filed on the public record Docket Entry ("Dkt") 161. Because the defendant does not know the substance of the "Ex parte Document," its filing violates the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

The Due Process Clause provides that no person "shall be deprived of life [or] liberty [or] without due process of law." US Const. amend V. This has been interpreted to require adequate notice of the request for judicial relief and an opportunity for the defendant to be heard concerning the merits of such relief. An opportunity to be heard in a meaningful manner necessarily requires a hearing that "satisfies the constitutional minimum of fundamental fairness." Santosky v. Kramer, 455 US 745, 756 n.8 (1982). Furthermore, the defendant has asked CJA-appointed counsel, Samuel Gregory to send him Dkt 161 in its entirety, numerous times. See Exhibit A-Trulincs Emails to Samuel Gregory. The defendant specifically objected to "ex parte meetings or events that solely involve the Court and the government." Id. at 2.

Because the defendant did not have an opportunity to contest the appropriateness of the letter, or even know the substance of its contents, his constitutional right to due process was deprived by "fatally infect [ing]" the outcome of the proceedings with the absence of fundamental fairness essential to the very concept of justice." Lisbena v. California, 314 US 219, 236 (1941); Crane v. Kentucky, 476 US 683, 690 (1986) ("[T]he Constitution guarantees criminal defendants a meaningful opportunity to present a complete defense.").

It's worth noting that the recent ex parte document fails to protect the public's interest in an "efficient, fair, and effective justice system." United States v. Ghailani, 733 F. 3d 29 (2d Cir. 2013); Kinsella v. United States, 361 US 234 (1960) (Due process has to do with [the] denial of fundamental fairness, shocking to the universal sense of justice[.]); American Bar Association Standards for Criminal Justice 2.9(A) ("A judge shall not initiate, permit, or consider ex parte communications[.]").

And finally, serious and blatant prosecutorial misconduct has distorted the integrity of the judicial process. Jolly v. Coughlin, 76 F. 3d 468, 482 (2d Cir. 1996) ([T]here is a "presumption of irreparable injury that flows from a violation of constitutional rights.")

For the foregoing reasons, the defendant respectfully objects to the so-called 'Ex parte Document' and letter filed on August 29, 2022, Dkt 161.

Respectfully submitted,

Judge 13

Andre Wilburn # 73608-298

Mr. Gregory:

Please let me know what Docket Entry 161 is on the public record in its entirety. Unfortunately my mother, my legal advisor and assistant, does not have access to the document. She's met with an error message that says:

"The document is either restricted or can not be found."

when she attempts top access Docket Entry 161.

I do not agree with any ex parte meetings or events that solely involve the Court and the government. Thus, I am again asking you to explain what Document 161 consists of in its entirety and what it is about. As my advocate, counsel, and attorney, you have a duty to answer this question with candor.

Thank you,
Andre Wilburn

Mr. Gregory:

Please let me know what Docket Entry #161 is on Chief Judge Brodie's docket. The entry is from August 29, 2022.

It's worth noting that you have not contacted me since August 28, 2022, despite me continuing to email you via TruLincs message.

Again, let me know what is contained in Docket Entry 161.

Thanks,

SUBJECT: Docket 161 & Sentencing Mitigation
DATE: 09/06/2022 01:51:37 PM

Mr. Gregory:

I don't know if you're still alive because I have not heard from you in an email since August 27, 2022. Perhaps you're in Alaska with your boys from the hood working on your not-for-profit organization again.

But as a reminder, you have a duty to vigilantly represent me and answer my questions that are within the bounds of the law. With that said, I have two questions for you, which I've asked numerous times already:

- (1) What is the secret ex parte proceeding, Docket Entry 161, on Chief Judge Brodie's docket? Please send me this document in its entirety without redactions or any other omissions or secrets.
- (2) How are you, as my attorney, mitigating this upcoming sentencing?

And I also have another question for you pertaining to the sentencing:

- (1) When are you scheduling a pre-sentence investigation with a probation officer so that I could move forward with this sentencing?

It's worth noting that I do not agree with your strategy of sitting around in MDC Brooklyn for months under the guise of sentencing leniency and/or a lighter sentence if I take your poor advice.

Let me know what's going on. And please actually answer my unambiguous questions.

Best,
Andre Wilburn

SUBJECT: What is Ex Parte Document 161?
DATE: 09/07/2022 06:46:55 AM

Mr. Gregory:

Because my numerous requests have gone unanswered, I am now demanding that you disclose the substance of the Ex Parte communication, Docket Entry 161. Moreover, if you know or have access to the document in its entirety, then I am demanding that you or your cohort Luis Hernandez send me the full document, Docket Entry 161. Otherwise, I am going to write to the Court and inquire about this ex parte, secret, docket entry that you, as my attorney, refuse to disclose to me in my own case. And although you failed to protect and and enforce my due process rights in the past, ex parte letters, orders, or decrees are sharply limited by the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment.

And once again, I am also asking you to assist me with my plea withdrawal.

But please send me Docket Entry 161 as soon as possible.

Thank you,
Andre Wilburn
